DEBTOR'S OBLIGATIONS UNDER THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

This Notice is provided to you as required by Section 527(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

If we provide bankruptcy services to you:

- A. All of the information and documents that you provide to this firm, to the bankruptcy trustee, and to the court for the purpose of preparing your bankruptcy petition and throughout your bankruptcy case must be complete, accurate, and truthful.

- B. You must completely and accurately disclose all of your assets and all of your liabilities in the documents that are filed to begin your bankruptcy case. You must make a reasonable effort to investigate and document the replacement value of each asset. The replacement value of each asset must be listed in the documents.

C. You must make a reasonable effort to investigate and document your current monthly income and your allowed monthly living expenses. They must be accurately stated in your bankruptcy documents. In a Chapter 13 case, your disposable monthly income left over after living expenses must also be accurately stated after reasonable inquiry.

D. Be aware that if you fail to provide all of the required information to the court within the deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court, your bankruptcy case may be dismissed and other sanctions, including criminal charges against you, may result.

I acknowledge that I received this Debtor's Obligations Under the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Code section 527(a), from the KORB TUCKER PLLC law firm.
